Things You Should Know

Don't risk your chances for Federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate our application forms.
This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.
The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be:
Evicted from your apartment or house:
Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received:
Fined up to $ 10,000:
 Imprisoned for up to 5 years; and/or Prohibited from receiving future assistance
Your State or Local governments may have other laws and penalties as well.
When you meet with the person who is to fill out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something, ask for clarification. That person can Answer your question or find out what the answer is.
When you answer application questions, you must include the following information:
 All sources of money you or any member of your household receive (wages, welfare payments, alimony, social security, pension, etc.):
 Any money you receive on behalf of your children (child support, social security for children, etc.); Income from assets (interest from a savings account, credit union, or certificate of deposit: dividends from stock, etc.);
 Earnings from second job or part time job;
 Any anticipated income (such as a bonus or pay raise you expect to receive)
 All bank accounts, savings bonds, certificated of deposit, stocks, real estate, etcthat are owned by you and any adult member of your family's household who will be living with you.

	Any business or assets you sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value, such as your home to your children your home to your children The names of all the people (adults and children) who will actually be living with you, whether or not they are related to you.
Signing the	Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it, and are sure everything is
Application	complete and accurate.
	When you sign the application and certification forms, you are claiming that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are commiting fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
	 Information you give on your application will be verified by your housing agency. In addition, HUD may do computer matches of the income you report with various Federal, State, or private agencies to verify that it is correct.
Recertification	You must provide updated information at least once a year. Some programs require that you report any changes in income or family/household composition immediately. Be sure to ask when you must recertify. You must report on recertification forms:
	 All income changes, such as increases of pay and/or benefits, change or loss of job and/or benefits, etc., for all household members.
	Any move in or out of a household member; and,
	All assets that you or your household members own and any assets that was sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value.
Beware of	You should be aware of the following fraud schemes:
Fraud
	Do not pay any money to file an application;
	Do not pay any money to move up on the waiting list;
	 Do not pay for anything not covered by your lease;
	Get a receipt for any money you pay; and
	 Get a written explanation if you are requireed to pay for anything other than rent (such as maintenance charges).
Reporting	If you are aware of anyone who has falsified an application, or if anyone tries to
Abuse	persuade you to make false statements, report them to the manager of your complex or your
	PHA. If that is not possible, then call the local HUD office of the HUD Office of Inspector General (OIG) Hotline at (800) 347-3735. You can also write to:
	HUD-OIG HOTLINE, (GFI) 451 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, DC 20410.
